

Regents Park Cricket Club Code of Conduct for Young Players

Regents Park CC.is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its members.

Regents Park CC. believes that it is important that members, coaches, administrators and parents, carers or guardians associated with the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others.

Therefore, members are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with Regents Park CC.

As a member of Regents Park CC.you are expected to abide by the following junior code of conduct:

- All members must play within the rules and respect officials and their decisions.
- All members must respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
- Members should keep to agreed timings for training and competitions or inform their coach or team manager if they are going to be late.
- Members must wear suitable kit – trainers and suitable sports clothing– for training and whites for match sessions, as agreed with the coach/team manager.
- Members must pay any fees for training or events promptly.
- Junior members are not allowed to smoke on club premises or whilst representing the club at competitions.
- Junior members are not allowed to consume alcohol or drugs of any kind on the club premises or whilst representing the club.

ECB Clubmark requires there to be an appropriate disciplinary process. The procedure for disciplining members and hearing appeals, is for appeals to go to the members, with a right of appeal against removal or refusal of membership in order to ensure any disciplinary process must be reasonable.
